EUROPEAN WINGS

(European Paratroopers Jump Badge)

All members of the European Paratroopers Association can earn the European Wings (European Paratroopers Jump Badge) after completing the jumps. A light blue wings with a white parachute in the center, which is surrounded on the base by twelve yellow stars, embroidered on a piece of black cloth represents this brevet.

The members of the European Paratroopers Association can earn the European Wings during one of our parachuting events. The expert parachutist members who cannot join our jump events can be awarded the European Wings only on proof of valid jump qualification.
